

Code of Conduct for Players

- Play for FUN!
- Work hard to improve your skills.
- Be a team player - get along with your team mates. The coach decides if you play and where you play. The team is more important than an individual player. If your coach keeps you on the bench this will be in the interest of the team, discussions are not allowed about this during the game.
- Learn teamwork, sportsmanship and discipline.
- Be on time for practices and games. Everybody comes to practice, if you are not able to come to practice you need to let the coach know your not coming. Not 5 minutes before practice of course, as soon as possible of course.
- Learn the rules, and play by them. Always be a good sport.
- Respect your coach, your team mates, your parents, opponents and officials. On the ice and on the bench you are cannot argue or comment on your team mates, assistant coach or the coach. You can talk about certain decisions after practice or the game. This cannot happen during the game or practice!!! Be a good sport or keep your mouth shut.
- Never argue with the official's decision.
